The Chinese Government having (through the Hon. Anson Burlingame) conceded to this Company the privilege of connecting the great seaports of the Empire by submarine electric telegraph cable, we propose commencing operations in China, and laying down a line of nine hundred miles at once, between the following ports, viz:

	Population.
Canton	1,000,000
Macos	60,000
Hong-Kong	250,000
Swatow	200,000
Amoy	250,000
Foo-Chow	1,250,000
Wan-Chu	300,000
Ningpo	400,000
Hang Chean	1,200,000
Shanghai	1,000,000
Total	5,910,000

These ports have a foreign commerce of $900,000,000. and an enormous domestic trade, besides which we have the immense internal commerce of the Empire, radiating from these points, through its canals and navigable rivers.

The cable being laid, this company proposes erecting land lines, and establishing a speedy and trustworthy means of communication, which must command there, as everywhere else, the communications of the Government, of business, and of social life especially in China. She has no postal system, and her only means now of communicating information is by couriers on land, and by steamers on water.

The Western World knows that China is a very large country, in the main densely peopled; but few yet realize that she contains more than a third of the human race. The latest returns made to her central authorities for taxing purposes by the local magistrate make her population Four hundred and Fourteen millions, and this is more likely to be under than over the actual aggregate. Nearly all of these, who are over ten years old, not only can but do read and write. Her civilization is peculiar, but her literature is as extensive as that of Europe. China is a land of teachers and traders; and the latter are exceedingly quick to avail themselves of every proffered facility for procuring early information. It is observed in California that the Chinese make great use of the telegraph, though it there transmits messages in English alone. To-day great numbers of fleet steamers are owned by Chinese merchants, and used by them exclusively for the transmission of early intelligence. If the telegraph we propose connecting all their great seaports, were now in existence, it is believed that its business would pay the cost within the first two years of its successful operation, and would steadily increase thereafter.

No enterprise commends itself as in a greater degree remunerative to capitalists, and to our whole people. It is of vast national importance commercially, politically and evangelically.

☞ The stock of this Company has been unqualifiedly recommended to capitalists and business men, as a desirable investment by editorial articles in the New York Herald, Tribune, World, Times, Post, Express, Independent, and in the Philadelphia North American, Press, Ledger, Inquirer, Age, Bulletin and Telegraph.

Shares of this company, to a limited number, may be obtained at $50 each, $10 payable down, $15 on the 1st of November, and $25 payable in monthly instalments of $2.50 each, commencing December 1, 1868, on application to

YOU ALL

HAVE HEARD OF

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,

AND

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

Prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, Philadelphia. Their introduction into this country from Germany occurred in 1825.

THEY CURED YOUR

FATHERS AND MOTHERS,

And will cure you and your children. They are entirely different from the many preparations now in the country called Bitters or Tonics. They are no tavern preparation, or any thing like one; but good, honest, reliable medicines. They are

The greatest known remedies for

Liver Complaint,
DYSPEPSIA,
Nervous Debility,
JAUNDICE,
Diseases of the Kidneys,
ERUPTIONS OF THE SKIN,

and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, stomach, or

IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fullness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil and Great Depression of Spirits.

All these indicate diseases of the Liver or Digestive Organs, combined with impure blood.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

is entirely vegetable and contains no liquor. It is a compound of Fluid Extracts. The Roots, Herbs, and Barks from which these extracts are made, are gathered in Germany. All the medicinal virtueus are extracted from them by a scientific Chemist. These extracts are then forwarded to this country to be used expressly for the manufacture of these Bitters. There is no alcoholic substance of any kind used in compounding the Bitters, hence it is the only Bitters that can be used in cases where alcoholic stimulants are not advisable.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC

is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with PURE Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, etc. It is used for the same diseases as the Bitters, in case where some pure alcoholic stimulus is required. You will bear in mind that these remedies are entirely different from any others advertised for the cure of the diseases named, these being scientific preparations of medicinal extracts, while the others are mere decoctions of rum in some form. The TONIC is decidedly one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public. Its taste is exquisite. It is a pleasure to take it, while its life-giving, exhilarating, and medicinal qualities have caused it to be known as the greatest of all tonics.

DEBILITY.

There is no medicine equal to Hoofland's German Bitters or Tonic in cases of Debility. They impart a tone and vigor to the whole system, strengthen the appetite, cause an enjoyment of the food, enable the stomach to digest it, purify the blood, give a good, sound, healthy complexion, eradicate the yellow tinge from the eye, impart a bloom to the cheeks, and change the patient from a short-breathed, emaciated, weak, and nervous invalid, to a full-faced, stout, and vigorous person.

Weak and Delicate Children are made strong by using the Bitters or Tonic. In fact, they are Family Medicines. They can be administered with perfect safety to a child three months old, the most delicate female, or a man of ninety.

These remedies are the best

Blood Purifiers

ever known and will cure all diseases resulting from bad blood. Keep your blood pure; keep your Liver in order, keep your digestive organs in a sound, healthy condition, by the use of these remedies, and no diseases will ever assail you. The best men in the country recommend them. If years of honest reputation go for anything, you must try these preparations.

FROM HON. GEO. W. WOODWARD,

Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, March 16, 1867.

I find that "Hoofland's German Bitters" is not an intoxicating beverage, but is a good tonic, useful in disorders of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility and want of nervous action in the system.

Yours Truly,
GEO. W. WOODWARD.

FROM HON. JAMES TAOMPSON,

Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, April 28, 1866.

I consider "Hoofland's German Bitters" a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it.

Yours, with respect,
JAMES THOMPSON.

FROM REV. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, D. D.,

Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

DR. JACKSON—DEAR SIR:—I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes. Yours, very respectfully,

J. H. KENNARD,
Eighth, below Coates Street.

CAUTION.

Hoofland's German Remedies are counterfeited. The Genuine have the signature of C. M. Jackson on the front of the outside wrapper of each bottle, and the name of the article blown in each bottle. All others are counterfeit.

Price of the Bitters, $1 per bottle; Or, a half dozen for $5.

Price of the Tonic, $1 50 per bottle; Or, a half dozen for $7 50.

The tonic is put up in quart bottles.

Recollect that it is Dr. Hoofland's German Remedies that are so universally used and so highly recommended; and do not allow the Druggist to induce you to take anything else that he may say is just as good, because he makes a larger profit on it. DEMOCRATIC PRIMARY ELECTIONS.

Agreeably to the provisions of the Rules for the Government of the Democratic Party of Bedford County, adopted by the Democratic County Committee, Feb. 25, 1869, the Democratic voters of Bedford County will assemble at the polling places in the several election districts, on SATURDAY, MAY 29, and vote by ballot for the choice of Candidates for the several offices to be filled at the next General Election, and, also, for two Inspectors and one Judge for each polling place who shall hold the primary Election for the next year. The Vigilance Committe now in existence shall hold this election, and in districts which have no such Committees, the Democratic voters present at the polling place at the time herein fixed for the opening of the polls, shall elect two Inspectors and one Judge to hold the election. The polls in the townships shall be open from nine o'clock a. m. until 6 o'clock p. m., those in the boroughs from 1 o'clock p. m. until 6 o'clock p. m. An accurrate list of the names of all persons voting shall be kept and a correct and full return of all the votes cast for the several persons voted for shall be made out, and both the list and returns shall be certified over the signature of at least two of the election officers to be correct and true. After the counting of the ballots, and the proper certification of the returns, the list of voters and the return of votes for the several candidates, shall be sealed up by the Inspectors and delivered to the Judge, who shall place the sealed return in the hands of the Chairman of the County Committe, at a meeting of the Judges from each polling-place, to be held at the Court House, in Bedford, on TUESDAY, JUNE 1, at one o'clock, p. m. All persons entitled to vote at the election for Representatives in the Legislature and pledging themselves to vote the whole Democratic ticket at the next General Election, will be permitted to vote at this election.

TRUST YOUR MOTHER.

Trust your mother! little one;
In life's journey just begun,
You will find some grief, some fears,
Which perhaps may cause you tears;
But a mother's kiss can heal
Many griefs that children feel;
Trust your mother—seek to prove
Grateful for her thougutful love.

Trust your mother! noble youth,
Turn not from the paths of truth;
In temptation's evil hour,
Seek her, ere it gains new power.
She will never guide you wrong
Faith in her will make you strong;
Trust your mother! aim to prove.
Worthy of her fondest love.

Trust your mother! maiden fair;
Love will guide your steps with care;
Let no clouds ere come between—
Let no shadow ere be seen—
Hiding from your mother's heart
What may prove a poisoned dart;
Trust your mother! Seek to prove
Worthy of her faithful love.

Trust your mother to the end,
She will prove your constant friend;
If 'tis gladness wings the hour,
Share with her the joyful shower;
Or if sorrow would oppress.
She will smile and she will bless:
Oh! be trustful, loving, true!

THE OFFICE SEEKER.

The following is from an old story, by J. K. Paulding, the novelist, and first went the rounds of the press about thirty years ago. It represents a conversation between a member of the Cabinet and a hanger-on for office, and is very suitable for the present time: The Secretary was called from his bed one cold winter morning to attend to business of the "utmost importance." He found a queer, long-sided man, at least six feet high, with a little apple head, a long queue, and a face critically round, as rosy as a ripe cherry, and the following conversation ensued:

"Well, my friend, what situation do you wish?"

"Why, any; I'm not very particular; but somehow or other, I think I should like to be a Minister. I don't mean a minister of the Gospel, but one of them Ministers to foreign parts."

"I'm very sorry, very sorry indeed, there is no vacancy just now. Would not some other place suit you?"

"Why-y-y," answerd the apple headed man, "I wouldn't much care if I took a situation in one of the departments. I wouldn't mind being a Comptroller, Auditor or something."

"My dear sir, I'm sorry, very sorry indeed, but it happens, unfortunately, that all these situations are at present filled. Would not you take something else?"

My friend stroked his chin, and seemed struggling to bring down the soarings of his high ambition to the present crisis. At length, he answerde: "Why-y-y, yes; don't care if I get a good Collectorship, or Inspectorship, or Surveyorship, or navel Agency or Postal Agency, or anything of that sort."

"Really my good sir." said the Secretary, "I regret exceedingly that not only all these places, but every other place of consequence in the Government is at present occupied. Pray think of something else."

He then, after some hesitation, asked for a clerkship, and finally the place of messenger to one of the public offices. Finding no vacancies here, he seemed in vast perplexitiy, and looked all around the room, fixing his eye at length on me, and measuring my height from head to foot. At last, putting on one of the drollest looks that ever adorned the face of man, he said; "Mister, you and I seem to be built pretty much alike, haven't you some old clothes you can spare,

The vessel no woman objects to embark on—a court-ship.

ALL THAT GLITTERS IS NOT GOLD.

BY EMILY J. MACINTOSH.

Why did the proverb strike me so forcibly on that lovely Wednesday, last spring, when I sat watching the rain drops fall, while the sun, just struggling out from the mass of clouds, transformed each wee globule into a diamond? I said it over in English, I turned it into French, German and Italian, and then let fancy and memory apply the quaint old saying to life's experience. Was my glittering dream of love and hope dross? I had fancied every promise golden, had tinted every dream of the future with glitter and sparkle. Why should the proverb haunt me so?

In vain I tried to thrust it out, the questson once put would linger in my mind till answered; and so, driven to desperation, I tore down the memories from the walls, arranged each incident, and applied the probe to each word and look.

I was in love with the handsomest man in G——, my native town, and I had every reason to believe myself the object of his special adoration.—For me he reserved his sweetist smile, his most graceful bow, his most corteous speeches, when alone, his voice sank for me, to its most melodious cadences, his eys dwelt on my face with tender, yet respectful admiration, his hand clasped mine with a warm pressure, and by every word, tone and look his love was offered to me.

We were a quiet circle of friends in G—— before this fascinating stranger dropped down amongst us. As the daughter of the richest man in the town, I had been allowed to lead much of the festivity, and when the newcomer showed me marked homage nobody questioned my right to accept it. He was a lawyer from New York, report said immensely wealthy; our own eyes told us extremely handsome, talented and agreeable. With Spanish eyes and a clear olive complexion, he had thick clustering curls of rich brown hair, splendid teeth, and the features of an Appollo. He was tall and finely formed, dressed in perfect taste, wearing diamonds of the first water for studs; a ring to match; heavy gold watch, chain, and sleeve buttons; but no other jewelry. He owned a superb pair of blooded-horses, a pretty carriage for two, whose comfort I had tested; lived in the best rooms of our first hotel; paid his bills punctually, and was universally regarded as a young millionare. He sang, waltzed, flirted, rode, drove, and bewitched my heart by each and every one of his accomplishments.

Why did I question all this glitter? Father had welcomed him on letters from New York; mother was charmed by his deferential courtesy toward her; society received him with open arms, and here I sat turning over all this, and whispering softly to my tortured heart, "All that glitters is not gold."

For one whole week I watched Rufus Lovering as only a woman, who felt her whole life's fate hung on the issue could watch. And I detected this:—A sudden voice calling him would drive every shade of color from his lips; a hand placed suddenly on his arm, or shoulder, would cause great beads of perspiration to roll from his forehead, and still his fingers were never still.

I can never tell what I suffered during that week. I loved him! He had won my girlish heart by a thousand graceful attentions, and I fairly worshiped beauty or talent at any time.

At last I determined to see if there lay any clue in his own room to help me in my blind groping. Of course, in propria persona their was no admission for me to his bachelor apartments, but I was determrned to get there.

A little rouge, a bread frilled cap, deep sun-bonnet, calico dress, gingham apron, and dusky hour in early summer, transformed me from a rather pretty girl into a blowsy Irish washerwoman, and, with a trembling heart, but unfaltering step, I made my way to the G—— House.

I know that it was indelicate, perhaps wrong for me to thus force myself upon the privacy of my lover; but, tortured by doubts, the haunting proverb always ringing its mocking refrain in my heart, I was resolved to prove the truth or falsify of his position.

What I expected to find I can scarcely say, but I inquired for him at the door, was shown to his parlor and requested to wait. I had arranged my pitiful story of poverty, meaning to use my proper name for reference, and test his charity, at least; and I sat in the parlor waiting to see if he was in, noting every article strewn on the table, and scanning every book on his shelves.

"At home, but particularly engaged. Would I take a seat and wait?"

This was the answer to my message, I sat down obediently, heartily ashamed of my errand, yet desirous of carrying out my plan.

Voices from the next room reached me, and I heard this:

"I tell you the funds are almost gone, and I cannot leave for a moment. You must send me more money."

"You leave me all the risk, you take all the pleasure."

"Do you call this pleasure?"

There was a bitter harshness in Rufus' voice that I had never heard there, but what he mocked so harshly I could not see. The other voice spoke next.

"You must pass some here."

"I cannot. No, you in New York must pass the coin, and be content that I am willing to manufacture it. You can never guess how exposed I am to detection, and in New York it would come certainly."

"And the heiress?"

"She is mine. Once married, Gus, you and I will quit this country, and see if in Paris we can forget the past."

"Which past?" The other voice was bitter now. "The past of the last five years, or our childhood? Oh! Al, it is a bitter life!"

"We will live it down. In after-years, when we become respectable citizens, the world will never know that Rufus Lovering is Allison Wilde, the escaped forger and coiner."

"Whom I now arrest in the name of the law," thundered a third voice.

There was the crash of a broken door, a scuffle, shots fired, and then my handsome lover entered the parlor in the grasp of a police-officer and a hotel waiter, who proved to be a disguised detective, while the brother, whose wily questions had won his confession, was paid for the treason.

I went home sad and sick. Never again can my heart love and trust; never can I forget that scene of detected guilt; never look upon pomp or show without the old proverb springing to my lips. Truly did I prove that 'ALL THAT GLITTERS IS NOT GOLD.'

A LITTLE STRANGE.

We regard the following as containing some statements that sound somewhat singular. It is the first intimation we have ever seen published of any such propositions as are here stated to have been made to the officials of the late Confederacy. And yet there seems to be some foundation for the story. It is brought out by a correspondent of the Wheeling Register, who writes from Roanoke county, Virginia. He tells the story in the following plausible style:

"While in Marion, Smyth county, a few days ago, I had the pleasure of several lengthy chats with Hon. Fayette McMullin. Mr. McMullin says that since the war he was one day in the President's house, in Washington, conversing with Hon. F. P. Blair, senior. Mr. Blair told him that soon after McMullin's "peace resolutions" had been introduced into the Confederate Congress, Mr. Lincoln being extremely anxious to bring about a peace honorable alike to both sections of the country, and foreseeing and wishing to avoid the political consequences of the military subjugation of the South, sent him (Mr. Blair) to Richmond to confer with Mr. Davis and learn what arrangements of the difficulties could be made. He was passed through the lines of the contending armies and conducted to Mr. Davis' house in Richmond.

After a long conversation with Mr. Davis and other prominent gentlemen for whom Mr Davis sent, and for whom Mr. Blair inquired, Mr. Davis said he had no proposition to make. Mr. Blair then proposed that General Lee's army be marched into Mexico against the French; that General Grant would follow and support the movement; that the united armies would drive out Maximillian; and then the Southern States should name their own terms of Reconstruction, everything short of independence being guaranteed. At Mr. Davis' request this proposition was made in writing, and after some consultation and reflection was signed and accepted by him. Mr. Blair returned to Washington, and Mr. Lincoln was highly delighted with the success of the negotiation. It was in the hope of consummating this arrangement that Mr. Lincoln and Mr. Seward met the "peace commissioners," Hons. Stephens, Hunter and Campbell, at Fortress Monroe; but there, to Mr. Lincoln's chagrin, the committee declared that they had been instructed by Mr. Davis to insist upon the independence of the South, and would listen to no other proposal. And thus the whole affair came to a "most lame and impotent conclusion."

Such is the substance of the acount related to Governor McMullen by Mr. Blair. Mr. McMullen says that he asked and obtained Mr. Blair's permission to make the statement public, but he had refrained from giving it publicity pending Mr. Davis' trial, fearing lest it might in some way prejudice his case.

A friend of ours was traveling while afflicted with a very bad cough. He annoyed his fellow-travelers until one of them remarked, in a tone of displeasure—

"Sir, that is a very bad cough of yours!

"True sir," replied our friend, "but you will excuse me—it's the best I've got!"

Mr. Camp, becoming enthusiastic, and holding out his brawny hand, cried out exultingly:

"What does that look like?

"That," interposed Mr. Ames, with a peculiar sniff of the nose—"that looks as though you were out of soap."

THE POPULATION OF THE GLOBE.

There are on the globe about 1,288,000,000 souls of which

360,000,000 are of the Caucasian race,
552,000,000 are of the Mongol race,
190,000,000 are of the Ethiopean race,
176,000,000 are of the Malay race,
1,000,000,000, are of the Indo-American race,

There are 3,642 languages spoken, and 1,000 different religions.

The yearly mortality of the globe is 333,333,333 persons. This is at the rate of 61,554 per day, 3,730 per hour, 60 per minute. So each pulsation of our heart marks the decease of some human creature.

The average of human life is 33 years.

One fourth of the population dies at or before the age of 7 years.

One half die at or before 17 years,

Among 10,000 persons one arrives at the age of 100 years, one in 500 attains the age of 90, and one in 100 live to the age of 60.

Married men live longer than single ones. In 1,000 persons 65 marry, and more marriages occur in June and December than in any other month of the year.

One eighth of the whole population is military.

Professions exercise a great influence on longevity. In 1,000 individuals who arrive at the age of 7, 42 are priests, orators or public speakers; 40 are agriculturalists, 33 are workmen, 32 are soldiers or military employees, 29 are advocates or engineer, 47 professors, and 24 doctors. Those who devote their lives to the polongation of others die the soonest.

There are 335,000,000 Christians.

There are 5,000,000 Isralites.

There are 50,000,000 Asiatic religions.

There are 160,000,000 Mohammedans.

There are 200,000,000 Pagans.

170,000,000 profess the Roman Catholic faith.

75,000,000 profess the Greek faith.

60,000,000, profess the Protestant.

A new made widow went lately to an insurance office to receive the amount of a policy on her husband's life, which had providentially been made payable to her. The president thought it only proper to condole with her bereavement. 'I am truly sorry, madam, to hera of your loss.'

'That's always the way with you men. You are always sorry when a poor woman gets a chance to make a little money.'

A tall Eastern girl named Short, loved a certain big Mr. Little, while Little, little thinking of Short, loved a little lass named Long. To make a long story short, Little proposed to Long, and Short longed to be even with Little's shortcomings. So Short meeting Long threatened to marry Little before long, which caused Little in a short time to marry Long. Query—Did tall Short love big Little less, because Little loved Long?

A blacksmith was lately summoned to court as a witness in a dispute between two of his workmen. The judge, after hearing the testimony, asked one why he did not settle, as the costs had already amounted to three times the disputed sum. He replied:

"I told the fools to settle—for I said the clerks would take their coats, the lawyers their shirts and if they got into your honor's court you'd skin em!"

A gentleman was chiding his son for staying out late at night, and said:

"Why, when I was of your age, my father would not allow me to go out of the house after dark."

"Then you had a deuce of a father, you had," said the young profligate.

Whereupon the father very rashly vociferated: "I had a confounded sight better one than yo have, you young rascal."

A countryman who had never paid more than twenty-five cents to see an exhibition, went to view the 'Forty Thieves.' The ticket seller charged him seventy-five cents, for a ticket.—Passing the pasteboard back, he quietly remarked: "Keep it, mister, I don't want to see the other thirty-nine,' and out he marched.

During the war a lady was distributing tracts to the occupants of a military hospital, and was excessively shocked to hear one poor fellow laugh at her. She stopped to reprove the wretched patient. "Why, ma'm," said he, "you have given me a tract on the sin of dancing, when I have got both my legs shot off."

'Jennie,' said a venerable Scotchman to his daughter, who was asking his consent to accompany her urgent and favored suitor to the altar, "Jennie, it's a very solemn thing to get married.' 'I know it, father," replied the sensible damsel; "but it's a good deal solemner not to get married."

"Sall." cried a girl, looking down from the upper story of a grocery, addressing another girl, who was trying to enter at the front door, "we've all been to campmeeting and we have been converted, so when you want milk on Sunday you'll have to come around to the back door."

A farmer in Western New York cured a distressing case of Grecian bend in his daughter by dipping the poor young thing in water, and laying her out in the sun until the "warp" came out.

A colored lady, boasting the other day of the progress made by her son in arithmetic, exultingly said. "He is in de mortification table."

A stump orator declared that he knew no nor-h, no south, no east no west.

"Then said a bystander, go to school and learn geography."

FRAUD AND FORCE.

It is clear as the noon-day sun, that the conspirators who are plotting the destruction of popular liberty by wresting from the people the right to control the suffrage question, have resorted to the most villanous system of fraud in order to accomplish their infamous purpose. Under the promise that the people of the "loyal states" should not be deprived of the privilege of regulating the elective franchise in their own way, legislatures were elected in those states, containing, in most cases, large radical majorities. These majorities are now wielded by the conspirators as instruments of fraud in preventing the people from interfering with the success of the plot to make the XVth Amendment a part of the Federal Constitution. These majorities are made to usurp the right of American freemen to settle this great question for themselves. Nor is it less apparent that force is to be superadded to fraud in carrying out the infernal programme. Morton's bill, passed at the last session of Congress, makes it a condition precedent to the admission of Virginia, Mississippi and Texas to representation in Congress, that these states ratify the Amendment. Although declared by the U. S. Supreme Court to be in the Union, the people of these states, with the bayonets of the federal janissaries pointed at their breasts, are told that they will be kept out of the Union until they agree that this black radical patch shall be put upon the Constitution. Three states are thus to be forced to give their assent to the Amendment. In the legislature of Indiana, the radical majority is not sufficiently large to hand over that body to the conspirators as an instrument in their hands. The Constitution of Indiana requires the presence of three-fifths of the members in either branch of the legislature to form a quorum. More than two-fifths of each house are democrats, and these democrats, in accordance with their constitutional privilege, resign and leave the legislature without a quorum. From the instant that there is not a quorum of members present, the legislative body is powerless to transact business. Nevertheless, the radical members and Senators in this Indiana legislature, proceed, without a quorum, to pass a resolution ratifying the XVth Amendment! And this lawless proceeding will, doubtless, be certified to the Department of State at Washington, by the radical Governor of Indiana, as a ratification of the said XVth Amendment by the legislature of that State! In this way, by the employment of fraud and force the game of the radicals is to be won.—But the cards are handled so clumsily that the trick is transparent to every body. Even the stolid equanimity of the philosopher of the Tribune is disturbed by the awkwardness of the play. In Saturday's issue of that paper, Greeley loquitur:

"We confess that the mysteries of Indiana legislation are to deep for us. The democrats in the House, forty-two in number, resigned; the Governor gave notice to the House of their resignation; the point of order was raised that this left the House without a quorum; but the remaining members refused to sustain it, and proceeded to adopt the XVth Amendment. We prefer to await further details as to the whole novel procedure before rejoicing over the adoption by another State."

Forney, too, though reveling in the beauties of such artistic chicanery as Morton's bill, is disgusted with the bungling Indianians. His gorge rises at the very thought of the indexterity of the performance. In Saturday's Press, he speaks as follows:

"Connecticut, which has just ratified the fifteenth amendment, was, it will be remembered, one of the doubtful States, and its favorable action almost insures the success of the measure.—Before the people there is no doubt of the issue. How alone the democracy can successfully oppose it is shown in the case of Indiana, from which state we have this week more discreditable and disgraceful news."

In his supreme disgust at the want of art on the part of his fellow conspirators in Indiana, he admits that the democrats of that state "successfully oppose" the Amendment, and thus virtually acknowledges the futility of the attempt at ratification by the quorumless legislature. The "success of the measure," he tells us, is "almost" assured. This is another way of telling his readers that it is doubtful. But he consoles his dupes by pretending to think that "before the people there is no doubt of the issue." We agree with him. The issue is now before the people of Pennsylvania. It is defined with singular sharpness. It is an issue with a double edge, and both edges will cut radical fingers. Fraud is one side of it; force the other; fraud in the action of the radical majority in the legislature refusing to allow the people of the state to vote on the issue, force in the compulsion of three states, at the point of the bayonet, to rob the voters of Pennsylvania of the sacred right to control and regulate the elective franchise for themselves. With this double-edged sword, placed in the hands of the democrats, by the insane folly of their political opponents, shall not the radical party be cut in pieces?

HARD TIMES! Hard times! Oh! yes, it is a little late in the day to complain of hard times. We democrats told you it would be so. We warned you that if you put an epauleted ass at the head of the government, you would have to suffer for it. But you would not hear. You thought it a capital joke to be governed by men whom you must have known to be unfit to make and execute your laws. Don't complain to us. We have no power to help you. We are out in the cold. We have no power in Congress, none in the legislature. Go to the radical leaders and pour your lamen ation in their ears. If they refuse to help you, go and do what you ought have done long ago, Help yourselves by turning the radicals out of power.

THE last Inquirer copies an article from the Philadelphia Sunday Morning Times, in which occurs the following:

"LET us have courage. The public debt has been decreased nearly $340-000,000 during the last three years and a half—at the rate of $80,000,000 annually."

It seems, then, that Andy Johnson did pretty well, after all. If he had not been forced to contend against a corrupt and thieving Congress, he might have done still better. But Grant is now at the head of affairs. He is in perfect accord with the Congressional plunderers. He dares not veto a single one of the corrupt schemes adopted by Congress. The tracks of the treasury robbers will be visible enough in a short time. Truly, "let us have courage!"

SOME radical hounds are howling because the Democratic Mayor of Philadelphia is appointing Irishmen on his police force. This is quite characteristic of those hypocrites. Irishmen are good enough if they can be blarneyed into voting the radical ticket, but when offices are to be given out, the old spirit of Know Nothingism steps in and says, "Put none but Americans on guard." Let Mayor Fox appoint whom he chooses and let the Hindoos howl.

IN the loil love for the "dear old flag" the flags seem to have got a little mixed. Soldiers who fought for the loil cause are everywhere being turned out of office, and loud mouthed members of the "home guard," and, in a number of instances, ex-confederate soldiers are being appointed in their stead. So much for the mendacious twaddle about the "love for the soldier" and the "old flag."

GOLD is up to 143. What does this mean? When Grant was inaugurated it stood at about 132. Boutwell's financial policy does not seem to cause any appreciation of the currency, but on the contrary appears to depreciate it. It now takes more greenbacks to buy a five dollar gold piece, than it did three months ago. Is this giving us the sound currency which the radicals promised?

THE radical papers print a dispatch from Atlanta, Ga., which states that Radford O. Rhodes, "a prominent republican," was killed by the "Ku Klux." It turns out that Rhodes was shot by an indignant husband. If "republicans" will commit adultery, they must expect to be "murdered" occasionally.

"THE distant orient hailing us through the golden gate at the west," will do. We rather think the orient hails from the east. The Inquirer, though, doesn't see it in that light. "The world moves," that is the reason. We don't care. Let it "hail!" As long as the crops are not injured by it, we shall not object.

Proclamation by the President.

WASHINGTON, May 16.—The President has issued a proclamation designating the 6th day of July next for the election in Virginia. The 4th clause of section 1st, article 3d of the constitution, is to be voted on separately. The clause authorizes the legislature, if they elect by a vote of three-fifths of the members, to remove disabilities from those who held office under the United States government and afterwards aided and abetted rebels. The 7th section of article 3d is also submitted to a separate vote. It requires that all persons to State, county or city offices to take an oath that they have never voluntarily aided or abetted rebellion and that they never will engage in any treasonable or rebellious act. The proclamation concludes as follows; "I direct the votes to be taken upon each of the above cited provisions alone and upon other portions of the said constitution in the following manner; Each voter favoring the ratification of the constitution, excluding the provisions above quoted, as framed by the convention of December 12, 1867, shall express his judgment by voting 'for the constitution.' Each voter favoring the rejection of the constitution, excluding the provisions above quoted, shall express his judgment by voting, 'against the constitution.' Each voter shall be allowed to cast a separate ballot for or against either or both of the provisions above quoted."

PHILADELPHIA.

[Correspondence of the Bedford Gazette.]

PHIL'A., May 11th, 1869.

Dont you feel like Maying to day, Mr. Editor? How I pity you if you are cabbined, cribbed, confined; for May never had days more mellow and warm, and we throw away ourselves into their mild embarce, and dream of olden times, of green fields, and the lane thro' the meadow, and a thorn-tree by the river's bank. Those times will come back and look as sweet as ever, altho' we look at them first now thro' cigar smoke. It gives them the fragrance of new mown hay. We don't dream long of May days and warm evenings with shadows long and slant under the green sycamore and vocal with the noise of frogs. We are awakened from our reverie by the merry laugh and shout of little girls below our window who play thro' the yard with the abandon of childhood plucking the daisy and butter cups to weave in their hair. But, we sat down to tell you that we have been crowded and jammed with work, and can scarce find an hour to write you. In addition to regular duties and correspondence for three papers, we have multiplied engagements such as preclude the pleasure of dropping you a line occasionally. Pretty soon we are off on a brush for a couple weeks and what we shall see and hear will not interest your readers. We therefore take French leave for the present, hoping we may soon be able to resume our correspondence. In the meantime, we bear testimony to the gratification it gives us to receive the visits of our old friend, the Gazette. We will give a hearty welcome fifty two times in a year, throwing in an invitation to the Editors to come and see me three hundred and sixty-five times in a year, and the assurance of a cordial reception. Allow me to conclude in the pathetic words of another:

"I've oftimes coldly bowed, and said—"Farewell!"
When every life-throb was an age of pain!
I've seen eternities of feelings swell
From Beauty's dark bright eye as tho' 'twould drain
Love's peerless fount of tear-gems! But to tell
Such parting scenes affects my heart and brain,
And therefore, reader, I will part with you,
Just as I would with an old worn-out shoe."

The Cuban Revolution.

The New York Sun has the following:

Private information has been furnished to the Spanish consulate in this city that new expeditions, with arms and men, for the Cuban patriots are to leave the coast of Florida next week. The facts were communicated, it is said, to the Spanish Minister, who sent special dispatches on the subject to the consul in this city, whom he instructed to take action at once, as the vessels selected for these expeditions are fitting out in this city.

The utmost caution is exercised in relation to the enlistment of recruits for Cespedes' army. The officers have decided to take only such men as have served with distinction in the late war. There are thousands of veterans in New York and Brooklyn who are anxious to fight for Cuban Independence, and the names of many of them have been enrolled, preparatory to making a formal call upon them to embark on future expeditions.

The leaders of the Junta have purchased a large quantity of arms, which are to be sent to Cespedes next week.

Two steamers, both fast sailers, have been purchased by the Junta, and they may soon be heard of as privateers, which will do just such service for Cuba as the Alabama did for the South.

INDIANA.

INDIANOPOLIS, May 14.—The House of Representatives this afternoon, before calling the roll to ascertain whether a quorum was present or not, concurred in the Senate amendments to the specific Appropriation bill by a viva voce vote. A message was received from the Governor, notifying the House of the resignation of forty-two of the members.

Mr. Osborn, Republican, then moved to adopt the joint resolution ratifying the Constitutional Amendment.

Mr. Coffroth, Democrat, objected, making a point of order that there was not a quorum present.

The Chair ruled that the question could not be considered.

An appeal was taken by Mr. Coffroth, but the decision of the Speaker was sustained, and the House passed the joint resolution by a vote of—ayes, 51; nays, none; two Democrats and one Republican refusing to vote.

Distressing Calamity.

On last Friday afternoon the fifth story of a large bonded warehouse belonging to Joseph Finch & Co., Pittsburg, fell with a terrible crash, carrying with it every remaining story of the structure. About seven thousand barrels of whiskey were stored in the building which were broken into fragments. Three men were buried in the ruins. The building was but recently erected, and cost $60,000.

The cause of the accident is attributed to the shortness of the joice, they failing to rest properly on the walls.

EXTENSIVE ART-GALLERY.—Next to the Bible, no book is more useful than Webster's Dictionary. The Unabridged is an extensive art Gallery, containing over three thousand engravings, representing almost ever animal, insect, reptile, implement, plants, etc., which we know anything about. It is a vast library, giving information on almost every mentionable subject. It indeed has been well remarked that it is the most remarkable compendium of human knowledge in our language.—Household Advocate.

THE LADY'S FRIEND for June is before us. The Steel Plate for this number is the beautiful saintly face of Isabella, one of Shakspeare's characters. The colored fashion Plate gives a rich and beautiful bridal dress, and others of the latest style. For music we find appropriately for June, "Roses fair as Jenny's cheek." The literary department is attractive. Published by Deacon & Peterson, 319 Walnut st., Phila., at $2.50 a year. Specimen numbers sent for ten cents.

A sad accident occurred at Chapman's Station, on the Catasauqua and Fogelsville Railroad, which resulted in the death of William Chapman. It appears the unfortunate man, while engaged in coupling some cars, was caught between them and crushed in such a horrible manner that he died in a few moments.

"If men or women could but find the fabled fountain which is said to restore health, and strength, and beauty, with what eagerness they would rush to drink its waters." It is found in the S. T.—1860—X. The sale of Plantation Bitters is without a precedent in the history of the world. They are at once the most speedy, strengthening health-restorer ever discovered. It required but a single trial to understand this.

MAGNOLIA WATER.—Superior to the best imported German Cologne, and sold at half the price.

REMOVAL.—The Inquirer Book Store and office has been removed to our new quarters in the Inquirer Building where we will be pleased to see our old patrons and furnish them with books, stationery, &c., cheaper than ever. Call and see us before purchasing elewhere. may21w1.

A great many people imagine that printers live on old rollers, old wood type, "pi" and "sich." This is a mistake. Printers live as other people do. They must have money to buy the necessaries of life, and flatter themselves that they will get it some day from their patrons. Versteh?

LIFE INSURANCE.—The Citizens' Co-operative Mutual Life Insurance Company of Bedford, which was recently chartered by the Legislature, promises well. Our citizens are taking hold in earnest and it will prove one of the best institutions of our county. It is truly the poor man's friend, as its rates are so low that all may become members at but a small outlay. All who can do so should join without delay.

Both papers in Bedford, the Inquirer and Gazette, have removed to a new building, but the Inquirer is cross at the Gazette, because it styles its end the "Gazette building," the editor of the Inquirer having built the other end! We commissserate the Inquirer in its afflictions!—Hollidaysburg Register.

The fellows of the Inquirer are a "lettle" jealous of our fine quarters in the GAZETTE BUILDING. They can't forget it, somehow. They'll get over it by and by. Age and a little experience will wear off that rugged edge of unkind feeling toward their lucky neighbors.

READER, THINK OF IT.—An exchange aptly and truthfully says of local papers, that they enhance the value of property; they benefit particularly merchants and real estate owners thrice the amount yearly they pay for the support. There is nothing that would do a place more harm than to be without a newspaper. This every sensible man knows. A local paper, is a necessity. It is a sacred duty to support your local paper. You need not think that the publisher of a paper can run it for your benefit and pay expenses out of his own pocket. Give your home paper a good advertising patronage and a respectable list, and you will then have just such a paper as you wish.

PUMPS.—Messrs. Rohm & Shuck respectfully announce that they will receive all orders for S. G. Mason's non-freezing pump, from this date till the 25th of August next. Those wishing a good serviceable pump will do well to send in their orders at once. They have thirty five of these pumps in wells in different parts of the county, and by all parties using them they are highly recommended. This pump is now offered to the public at the following prices. There are two sizes, viz: one inch and three-quarter inch.

Price list: Three-quarter inch pump—from 7 to 10 ft., $15.00; 10 to 15, $18.00; 15 to 20, $20.00; 20 to 25, $25.00; 25 to 30, $30.00; 30 to 35, $35.00. Inch pump—from 7 to 10 ft., $18.00; 10 to 15, $20.00; 15 to 20, $25.00; 20 to 25, 30.00; 25 to 30, $35.00; 30 to 35, $40.00. may21w3.

PLEA FOR THE BIRDS.—Don't kill the birds. We scarcely ever hear a bird sing; in fact they dare not tune their throats for fear of a brave man armed with a gun, who prowls over a meadow and mound, ready at the first gush of music to tear the warbler to pieces with leaden rain. We kill the birds and then complain of the scarcity of fruit. Let the birds live, and they will increase and protect our fruit crop; nay, they will add to the production of all crops, for we verily believe that, the increase of pestiferous insects of all kinds is owning to the decrease of birds. When birds were plenty, we never heard of great crop failures produced by insects, such as now derange the markets of the country, and impose heavy burdens on the people. It is not only fruit, but grain of all kinds is imperiled by the absence of birds to protect it. Let the feathered inhabitants of our fields and woods live; give them a chance to increase, and their services will amply repay a brutal man for the lives he spares.

UNSEATED LANDS.—Among the bills passed by the Legislature is one providing that the Treasurer of each county shall keep a book to be called the "receipt book," in which shall be recorded the receipts of all payments made to him on account of taxes paid on unseated lands, designating the number of acres warrantee passed, and the name or names of owners or alleged owners of each tract of land, the towship where situate, and amount of taxes paid and when and by whom paid, a certified copy of which receipt, under hand of the Treasury and the seal of the county, shall be the only evidence of the payment of taxes except where said receipts have been duly recorded in accordance with the provisions of the first section of the act of March 9th, 1847; that the owners of unseated lands shall have two years from the passage of this act within which to have their receipts for taxes on unseated lands recorded in said book, where the same have not already been entered in a book heretofore kept by the Treasurer of the county for that purpose; that no parol evidence shall be received to prove the payment of taxes on unseated lands.

HOW TO KEEP COOL.—Now that the warm weather is coming on, the anxious housekeeper, glowing before the heated oven, will be glad to avail herself of any method of escape from its fiery atmosphere. One refuge is open. Mrs. S. S. Marvin, of No. 91 Liberty street, Pittsburg, has earned the thanks of the toiling and exhausted housewife by providing for her a much greater variety of superior cakes, biscuit and crackers, than any ordinary kitched could turn out. Not only are labor and fatigue of their preparation thus avoided, but there is actual economy in procuring from Mr. Marvin, as often as required, his fresh, palatable and wholesome small cakes and various crackers; inasmuch as his abundant facilities for their manufacture on a large scale enable him to funish them at lower rates than they would cost the private housekeeper to make them at home. And yet he is scrupulously careful not to secure cheapness at the expense of quality. He makes it a point to use only the best materials. We will not stop here to enumerate the different cakes he manufactures; each description is excellent in its kind. Let the purchaser who desires a first class article of crackers, be sure to see that Mr. Marvin's name is marked on the box or package. He is always willing to let his work speak for itself. Ask your grocer for them.—Presbyterian Banner.

POLITE LITERATURE.—Since the time when the sublime effusions of the Hard-Shell Baptists enlivened the columns of the newspapers, the public has languished for that sort of literary pabulum until Holahan, uninvited, bursts upon the world. In lofty disdain, alike of point and punctuation, he adopts no common models, but relies solely on his own unaided genius. Neither his preceptor, "our" Congressman, nor the Complete Letter Writer could have been present when he indited the chaste epistle which appears below. To the much-extolled Common Schools of the Commonwealth, the credit of this literary achievement cannot be given. Its author is a graduate of the Agricultural College of Pennsylvania, that noble institution which, like a good foster-mother, laps and paps, and then sends forth so much perspiring genius to an admiring generation.

It is impossible to refer at length to the many fine touches that are compressed in this elegant letter. To do so would make the commentary outswell the production itself. We, our innocent selves, come in for compliment, and our amiable neighbor across the way, is presented to the public in the double and somewhat inconsistent character of "willing dupe and handmaid of the GAZETTE." In addition to being a dupe and handmaid, he is further described as "one altogether lovely." The letting out of a little secret that the Inquirer charged the party for the printing of posters for public meetings may be of use hereafter to other people. But to charge, and then "attack our public servants in a most unfriendly way" is more than the party expected. The Inquirer editor should have been more friendly in his attacks. But, happily, Holahan rushes gallantly to the defense. After losing the candidate of their choice for postmaster, whose election was "void abinitio," "partial and by no means conclusive," the public will learn with delight that the new postmaster of our village is "ready to die like Aristiades" for his office. He is willing to die, moreover, with no more money than will warrant a tragic burial with two rs; just as if a grateful government has ever failed to inhume its patriotic postmasters. In these degenerate days it is pleasing to know that Bedford at least possesses a P. M. who is willing to die for the cause. With the radical wretches who are offended at "our" Congressman and our new postmaster, Mr. Holahan has no patience. They are "half-starved inconsiderate malcontents who want to be foremost or break something." "The respected candidates" are "cat paws without their consent." But we are compelled to drop comment, and admit the reader to the perusal of this exquisite literary performance. Hereafter when Mr. Holahan wishes to write to the radicals of Bedford county, we tender him the columns of the GAZETTE which they read much more assiduously than the Fulton Republican. But he must learn to spell better.

Mr. Editor:—I have this moment read an article published in your "Republican" of last week headed "Things we don't understand" Being a stranger it is not for me to say how much you do understand or to test your understanding in anyways but in justice to you I think you have written that article under the proper caption. You have evidently permitted yourself to be imposed upon by designing narrow-minded men of this section, when you speak of the Bedford P. O. Ordinary sagasity on the part of a Republican editor should have satisfied him that there was something rotten in the statement of the Bedford Inquirer, the willing dupe and handmaid of the Bedford Gazette, with reference to Mr. Cessna. In the first place the inquirer has never been friendly disposed toward Mr. Cessna, nor towards our representative, nor towards any but John Lutz and him altogether lovely. It is well worthy of observation that from the beginning of the contest for the election of a congressman, the Inquirer has never refuted a single calumny fulminated by the Gazette, upon any of our candidates, nor vindicated the party beyond what would naturally have been expected of a neutral paper. Its object seems to have been to do as little as it could in the least way it could without exciting the popular indignation. It has been of but little service to us, except to publish some bills for a consideration, while it has never allowed an opportunity to pass to attack our public servants in the most unfriendly way, not so much for the purpose of exposing faults as to show its own importance, which I feel safe in saying is not generally realized.

It is true that Mr. Russell and his friends called an election in which the subscriber was pleased to participate for the purpose of supporting him, but, when it is well known that the whole transaction was informal and void abinitio and that other candidates equally meritorious whose collateral claims were beyond all question brought a just influence to bear fully entitled to the same consideration. The popular vote as it is termed was partial and by no means conclusive. It was therefore found expedient to compromise the matter by the appointment of a new man one who although it is true he has filled many positions of public trust is unquestionably one of the best men in the party; and so scrupulous in his integrity as to be ready to die like Aristiades, with no more money than will warrant him a respectable burrial. Mr. Russel has accepted an appointment in Philadelphia and is perfectly satisfied. The great ado is being made by the Copperhead papers and their republican conscripts who like half starved, inconsiderate malcontents want to be foremost or break something. All men cannot be supplied with offices and it is a shame for our party that so many persons whose sole consideration is that they have carried a coffee-pot to a township meeting now feel themselves entitled to a post office or a revenue assessorship or to some other position for services rendered. Mr. Cessna has never yet turned his back upon his friends but in the distribution of public patronage he seems to hold the claim of the position and the interests of the party paramount to any personal considerations of his own. It is due to the respected candidates for the post office here to say that they have been used as cat paws without their consent for the purpose of getting up a disruption in the party and it is highly important that persons should be made to understand these facts before they attempt to mould pulic opinion,

Yours Respectfully
WM. C. HOLAHAM.

COLBURN'S PATENT
RED JACKET AXE.

Is better than our regular shaped Axes for these reasons. First—It cuts deeper. Second—It don't stick in the Wood. Third—It does not jar the hand. Fourth—No time is wasted in taking the Axe out of the cut. Fifth—With the same labor you will do one-third more work than with regular Axes. Red paint has nothing to do with the good qualities of this Axe, for all our Axes are painted red. If your hardware store does not keep our goods, we will gladly answer inquiries or fill your orders direct, or give you the name of the nearest dealer who keeps our Axes.

WATERSIDE WOOLEN FACTORY!—30,000 LBS. WOOL WANTED! The undersigned having leased the Large New Woolen Factory, at Waterside, for a number of years, respectfully inform the old customers of the Factory and the public generally, that they will need at least the above amount of wool. They have on hand a large lot of Cloths, Cassimeres, Tweeds, Satinetts, Jeans, Blankets, Coverlets, Flannel, &c., which they will exchange for wool, as has been the custom heretofore. Carpets will be made to order, at all times. Stocking yarn of all kinds always on hand. Our Peddler, Thomas Border, will call on all the old customers, and the public generally, in due time, for the purpose of exchanging goods for wool. The highest market price will be paid for wool in cash.

N. B. Wool carding spinning and country Fulling will be done in the best manner and at short notice. JOHN I. NOBLE & BRO.,

LET EVERY MAN, WOMAN AND CHILD
READ THIS!

Their own interests are at stake in this matter. Everybody has suffered so much from the accursed CREDIT SYSTEM, if system it can be called, that I intend to offer to everybody a panacea for the evil in the future.

On and after the first day of June, 1869, I will sell goods EXCLUSIVELY FOR CASH OR PRODUCE. No doubt some customers may be lost to me, but I flatter myself that it will be only those from whom I cannot collect present accounts.

All goods will be sold at about one-half the profit now paid by consumers. The people often complain of Bedford prices being higher than elsewhere, and it is doubtless true, to some extent, for the reason that good customers have had to pay for others' goods with an additional profit on their own.

Let an intelligent community sustain me in this enterprise and they WILL SAVE FROM TEN TO FIFTEEN PER CENT. ON EVERYTHING THEY CONSUME. may14m3 H. F. IRVINE.

NOTICE.—All accounts not settled by the first day of June, 1869, either by cash or note, will be put in the hands of an officer for collection. Friends will please take notice, and by so doing will save trouble and costs.

G. R. OSTER & CO.
wish to notify the public that they are now receiving and opening the most extensive and varied assortment of new and cheap ever opened in Bedford, purchased under favorable circumstances since the great breakdown in prices, and will now offer them to CASH buyers, both wholesale and retail, at much lower prices than the same kind can be bought for in Bedford county. Country Storekeepers will find an opportunity of sorting up their stocks, if only a single piece is wanted at wholesale prices.
WINTER GOODS

Special Extraordinary Inducements.

In ladies dress goods, such as striped and chene mohair, striped, plaid, shat and chene poplins in changeable effects, for suits and walking dresses, all that look at them say they are cheap.—Extra heavy mixed melange poplins and ne plus ultra Repellants for suits, Empress cloth, English serges, Epinglines and corded poplins, in brown, steel, violet, purple, wine green, garnet and bismark. They are beauties. All you have to do is look at them, and your own judgment will say buy French Merinos, coburgs, wool delaines and alpacas in all the new colorings, best American delaines and Armures in the new stripes and palka dots, very desirable.

10000 yards of beautiful calico prints that won't fade, at 6, 8, 10, 12, 14, 15 and 16 cents.

Piles of b'eached and unbleached muslins, at 6, 8, 10, 12, 14, 15, 16, 18 and 20 cents.

You have all heard no doubt of cheap flannels. It is all over town. The ladies talk about it as much as of the coming holidays; all wool flannels at 25, 30, 35, 40, 45, 50 and 60 cents.

Ladies Furs, shawls, Grand Dutches, Lady Belle, pretty balmoral and hoop skirts. Corsets guaranteed to stand enough of pressure to break a rib every week Ladies breakfast shawls, Merino vests, hoods, gloves and hosiery.

Men's wool and merino under shirts and drawers. Woolen and white over shirts, comforts, neck-ties, scarfs, collars, &c.

A large and varied assortment of cloths, cassimeres, tweeds, satinets; velvet cord, blankets, ginghams, checks, tickings, shirting str.pes, table diapers, napkins, doylies and towels, decidedly cheap.

Don't our ready-made clothing, hats, caps, boots and shoes strike you as cheap, a whole rig at our store from tip to toe and won't cost you much.

Sewing Machines.

$25! $25!

THE

AMERICAN SHUTTLE

SEWING MACHINE!

Is retailed at a price within the reach of all. This Machine uses a straight needle, makes the LOCK STITCH (alike on both sides), has a self-adjusting tension, and can do every variety of sewing. It will hem, fell, bind, cord, braid, seam, built, tuck, ruffle, and gather; and will work equally well on silk, linen, woolen, or cotton goods, with silk, linen, or cotton thread.

THE

AMERICAN SHUTTLE SEWING MACHINE

—IS—

Warranted for Five Years!

Our Agents will be supplied with duplicate parts of the Machine, in case of accident. It makes precisely the same stitch made by the Singer, Wheeler & Wilson, Howe, and Florence Machines. It has the Under-feed, like the best of high-priced Machines, and is the only low-priced Shuttle Machine in the market that has this feed. We are enabled to sell a first-class SHUTTLE MACHINE at a very low price, on account of its Simplicity, and consequent low cost of Manufacturing, in comparison with Complicated Machines.

AGENTS.

We wish to arrange with Agents, male or female, to represent the American Shuttle Sewing Machine, in each State, County, and Town in the United States and Ontario. Extra inducements to Experienced Agents. For full particulars, as to Salary or Commission, address

OUR NEW FAMILY SEWING MACHINE.

The superior merits of the "Singer" Machines over all others for either Family use or Manufacturing purposes, are so well established and so generally admitted, that an enumeration of their relative excellences is no longer considered necessary.

OUR NEW FAMILY MACHINE, which has been brought to perfection regardless of time, labor, or expense, is now confidently presented to the public as incomparably the Best Sewing Machine in existence. The machine in question is Simple, Compact, Durable and Beautiful. It is quiet, light running, and never before attempted upon a single Machine,—using either SILK, TWIST, LINEN OR COTTON THREAD, and sewing with equal facility the very finest and coarsest materials, and anything between the two extremes, in the most beautiful and substantial manner. Its attachments for Hemming, Braiding, Cording, Tucking, Quilting, Felling, Trimming, Binding, etc., are Novel and Practical, and have been invented and adjusted especially for this Machine.

CAPABLE OF PERFORMING A RANGE AND VARIETY OF WORK

New designs of the Unique, Useful, and Popular Folding Tops and Cabinet Cases, peculiar to the Machines manufactured by this Company, have been prepared for enclosing the new Machine.

A faint idea, however, can at best be conveyed through the medium of a (necessarily) limited advertisement; and we therefore urge every person in quest of a Sewing Machine, by all means to examine and test, if they can possibly do so, all the leading rival Machines before making a purchase. A selection can then be made understandingly. Branches or agencies for supplying the "Singer" Machines will be found in nearly every city and town throughout the civilized world, where Machines will be cheerfully exhibited, and any information promptly furnished. NATURE'S GREAT RESTORER.

SCHEETZ'S

CELEBRATED

BITTER CORDIAL.

This medical preparation is now offered to the public as a reliable substitute for the many worthless compounds which now flood the market. It is purely vegetable, composed of various herbs, gathered from the great storehouse of nature, and selected with the utmost care. It is not recommended as a CURE ALL, but by its direct and salutary influence upon the Heart, Liver, Kidneys, Lungs, Stomach and Bowels, it acts both as a preventive and cure for many of the diseases to which those organs are subject. It is a reliable Family Medicine, and can be taken by either infant or adult with the same beneficial results. It is a certain, prompt and speedy remedy for DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, BOWEL COMPLAINT, DYSPEPSIA, LOWNESS OF SPIRITS, FAINTINGS, SICK-HEADACHE, &c. For Chills and Fevers of all kinds, it is far better and safer than quinine, without any of its pernicious effects. It creates an appetite, proves a powerful digester of food, and will counteract the effects of liquor in a few minutes.

THE GREAT

ZINGARI BITTERS.

A Safe Blood Purifier,

A Splendid Tonic,

A Pleasant Beverage,

A CERTAIN CURE

AND

PREVENTIVE OF DISEASES.

The ZINGARI BITTERS are compounded from a prescription of the celebrated Egyptian physician Dr. CREGSUS, who, after years of trial and experiment, discovered the Zingari Herb—the most remarkable vegetable production, the earth, perhaps, has ever yielded—certainly the most effective in the cure of disease. It, in combination with the other valuable properties of which the Zingari Bitters is composed, will cure

Dyspepsia, Fever and Ague, Bilious Fever, Cholic, Colds, Bronchitis, Consumption in its first stage, Flatulency, Nervous Debility, Female Complaints, Rheumatism, Dysentery, Acute and Chronic Diarrhœa, Cholera Morbus, Cholera, Typhoid and Typhus Fever, Yellow Fever, Scrofula, Diseases of the Kidneys, Habitual Costiveness &c., &c.

In the PREVENTION and CURE of the above diseases, it has never been known to fail, as thousands of our most prominent citizens throughout all parts of the country will testify. Let the afflicted send for circular containing testimonials and certificates of those who have been cured after their cases have been pronounced hopeless by our best physicians.

AYER'S

HAIR VIGOR,

FOR THE RENOVATION OF THE HAIR.

THE GREAT DESIDERATUM OF THE AGE.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color and the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a

HAIR DRESSING,

nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts longer on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS,

For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one Medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of their remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For DYSPEPSIA or INDIGESTION, LISTLESSNESS, LANGUOR and LOSS of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For LIVER COMPLAINT and its various symptoms, BILLIOUS HEADACHE, SICK HEADACHE, JAUNDICE or Green SICKNESS, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For DYSENTERY or DIARRHŒA, but one mild dose is generally required.

For RHEUMATISM, GOUT, GRAVEL, PALPITATION OF THE HEART, PAIN IN THE SIDE, BACK and LOINS, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For DROPSY and DROPSICAL SWELLINGS they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For SUPPRESSION a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a DINNER PILL, take one or two pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these PILLS makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus.

The Waters' Pianos are known as among the very best.—N. Y. Evangelist.

We can speak of the merits of the Waters' Pianos from personal knowledge as being of the very best quality.—Christian Intelligencer.

The Waters' Pianos are built of the very best and most thoroughly seasoned material.—Advocate and Journal.

Our friends will find at Mr. Waters' store the very best assortment of Pianos, Melodeons and Organs to be found in the United States.—Graham's Magazine.

MUSICAL DOINGS.—Since Mr. Waters gave up publishing sheet music, he has devoted his whole capital and attention to the manufacture and sale of Pianos and Melodeons. He has just issued a catalogue of his new instruments, giving a new scale of prices, which shows a marked reduction from former rates, and his Pianos have recently been awarded the First Premium at several Fairs. Many people of the present day, who are attracted, if not confused, with the flaming advertisements of rival piano houses, probably overlook the modest manufacturer like Mr. Waters; but we happen to know that his instruments earned him a good reputation long before Expositions and "honors" connected therewith were ever thought of; indeed, we have one of Mr. Waters' Pianofortes now in our residence (where it has stood for many years,) of which any manufacturer in the world might well be proud. We have always been delighted with it as a sweet-toned and powerful instrument, and there is no doubt of its durability; more than this, some of the best amateur players in the city, as well as several celebrated pianists, have performed on the same piano, and all pronounce it a superior and first-class instrument. Stronger endorsement we could not give.—Home Journal. jan15,'69.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA,

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are truly marvellous. Inveterate cases of Scrofulous disease, where the system seemed saturated with corruption, have been purified and cured by it. Scrofulous affections and disorders, which were aggravated by the scrofulous contamination until they were painfully afflicting, have been radically cured in such great numbers in almost every section of the country, that the public scarcely need to be informed of its virtues or uses.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develops into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver, or it shows its presence by eruptions on the skin, or foul ulcerations on some part of the body. Hence the occasional use of a bottle of this Sarsaparilla is advisable, even when no active symptoms of disease appear. Persons afflicted with the following complaints generally find immediate relief, and, at length, cure, by the use of this Sarsaparilla: St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Sore Ears, and other eruptions or visible forms of Scrofulous disease. Also in the more concealed forms, as Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and the various Ulcerous affections of the muscular and nervous systems.

Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing these obstinate maladies by any medicine. But long continued use of this medicine will cure the complaint. Leucorrhœa or White, Uterine Ulcerations, and Female Diseases, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by its purifying and invigorating effect. Minute Directions for each case are found in our Almanac, supplied gratis. Rheumatism and Gout, when caused by accumulations of extraneous matters in the blood, yield quickly to it, as also Liver Complaints, Torpidity, Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and Jaundice, when arising, as they often do, from the rankling poisons in the blood. This SARSAPARILLA is a great restorer for the strength and vigor of the system. Those who are Languid and Listless, Despondent, Sleepless, and troubled with Nervous Apprehensions or Fears, or any of the affections symptomatic of Weakness, will find immediate relief and convincing evidence of its restorative power upon trial.

Miscellaneous.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometime subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and public Speakers find great protection from it.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

So generally are its virtues known that we need not publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

AYER'S AGUE CURE,

For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Billious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

As its name implies it does Cure, and does not fail. Containing neither Arsenic, Quinine, Bismuth, Zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it in no wise injures any patient. The number and importance of its cures in the ague districts, are literally beyond account, and we believe without a parallel in the history of Ague medicine. Our pride is gratified by the acknowledgments we receive of the radical cures effected in obstinate cases, and where other remedies had wholly failed.

Unacclimated persons
